

THE ULTIMATE "I Wanna Buy a House!" CHECKLIST

Instructions:

1. Answer the questions with your significant other. (Not buying together? Skip to #3.)
2. Discuss, deliberate, have a brief existential crisis, question your place in the world and everything, then calmly come to an agreement. No seriously: You're going to disagree about some things. This worksheet is a chance to talk those differences out.
3. Take these answers to your real estate agent, who will be overjoyed you aren't a hot mess!

Remember: There are no right answers. Only your answers.

Section #1 | Hopes and Dreams

Objective: Acknowledge your underlying reasons for wanting to buy a home.

Why are you buying a home?

Check all that apply. If there's one reason you feel speaks especially to you, circle it with some hearts. Y'know. If you want.

Because I've always wanted to own a home

Because I'm getting married /
we want a place to raise a family

Because we need a bigger place

For the tax benefits

To get into a good school district

To rent it out / extra income

Sick of my rent going up

To build a nest egg for retirement

For the ability to update /
design how I wish

Any other reasons?

In your own words, what's the most important thing to you about owning a home?

The feeling of accomplishment? The yard? Entertaining? The garage? The extra bedroom for the in-laws?

How would you describe the right neighborhood for you right now?

Quiet? Bustling? Filled with lots of same-age families?

Section #2 | Your Support Network

Objective: Set your expectations for your friends, family, and any expert partners (agents, lawyers, etc.) you may work with along the way.

Name specific friends, family, and expert partners who will fill these roles.

Co-Buyer Will anybody be buying or co-signing with you? Your significant other? Your parents?	Adviser Who will be guiding you along the way?	Co-Shopper Who will be helping you pick the right place?	Emotional/Texting Support Who will always be there when you need them?

How much more or less do you want to spend once you buy?

How much of your monthly income are you planning to spend on your home?

Slightly important question.

All of it. No, seriously. All of it.

Most of it. As long as I have money left over for vacations and Netflix.

Some of it. My home isn't the end-all-be-all of my life.

A little of it. It's just a place to sleep.

How's your credit?

Better credit is better for you. But don't worry – there are options even if your credit isn't perfect.

Have you been pre-approved for a mortgage yet?

Pre-approval shows your agent and the home sellers that you're serious!

Yes, I have been pre-approved.

No, I haven't been pre-approved.

I need some help understanding pre-approval.

Section #5 | Your Outlook

Objective: Help your agent know how you're feeling, what you're confident about, and where you could use a little bit of help.

Which parts of the buying process are you particularly excited or nervous about?

Only the unbalanced are excited about the mortgage process. Just sayin'!

	Nervous	Neutral	Excited
